2) The D.C. Bangalore, reports that Khatija Bi, the last Barawardar died on 28/1/31, that the eldest of her three sons is dead and that the two surviving male heirs are agreeable to the Continuance of their deceased mother's pension of Rs 1-11-11 in the name of their widowed sister Khatum Bi, who is living with them & under their protection. There are some doubtful points which require clearing up.

The G.O of 4-1-28 sanctioning the pension in question to Khatija Bi directed the distribution of the pension as stated therein among the widow, her four sons & four daughters. The records now sent mention only 3 sons & 3 daughters. Nothing is mentioned about the other son & daughter.

Of the two daughters of the deceased, Begum Khatun Bi, the present applicant, it is stated by the two surviving sons in his statement before the Amildar on 7-6-32 that only one of them is living with her husband & that the other is dead, whereas in the draft petition it is stated that both are married & living with their husbands.

(2) Such discrepancies might be noted upon stating as to whether on the marriage of a daughter or the death of a son or a daughter his or her share of the pension reverts automatically for the benefit of the survivors.

The discrepancies referred to above may have been due to interval in time between the date of the G.O. sanctioning the pension to Khatija Bi, viz 4-1-28, the date of the Amildar's report 10-6-32

The exact dates on which the four sons referred to died are not furnished. May this information be awaited?

In his letter of 3.11.33, the D.C. states that he has called for and will report on receipt, information, as to the exact dates of the deaths of the various Children of Late Khatija Bi. Since the Amildar's report based on the mahazar says that only four out of the eight children are now alive, it may be assumed as a fact, that the other four are now dead. While awaiting information as to the exact dates of their death, the file may be transferred to the Law Section, for opinion on the question as to whether, the death of these Sons and daughters, has the effect of automatically transferring their claims on the pension, to the Survivors.

18) In the G.O of 4th Jan 1928, the pension has been divided between the Widow, Khatija Bai & her four sons & four daughters. It was no doubt ~~pay~~ made payable in the name of the widow but such payment was on behalf of herself & her children. The children therefore took a vested interest in the pension & on their death, such interest passes to their respective heirs under the Mahomedan Law. If therefore the distribution of this small pension of Rs 1/11/11 has to be made in accordance with the strict principles of the Mahomedan Law of Inheritance, it will be necessary not only to find out the ~~dates~~ exact dates on which the four children died after the G.O of 4 Jan 1928 but also to ascertain whether ~~they~~ the deceased have left any heirs of their own & if so their name & other particulars.

19) The interest of the widow Khatija Bi under the G.O is only to 1/8 of the pension - It is this that now devolves upon her heirs & that is her ~~two~~ sons & daughters living at the time of her death.

20) In the circumstances of this case, it does not appear necessary or desirable to divide this pension ~~in accordance~~ to all the heirs in accordance with Mohamedan Law. Since the two sons surviving agree that their sister Khatun Bi fell vacant, and according to the legal opinion ⊗ on his claims, it was then settled that Ismail Beig had no claim to this pension. His son's claim in the present case does not therefore arise.

27) Khatija Bi, the last baraawardar, was drawing a pension of Rs 1-11-11 as per G.O. No. Fl. 5368-9/Stt. 3-27-8 dated 4/1/28, of which 1/8th was for herself and the balance of 7/8th being the share of her children; a single p.p.o. having been issued in her name. Khatija Bi is now dead and her share of pension viz. 1/8th of Rs 1-11-11 i.e. 3 annas 6 pies is now available and the same is claimed by her daughter, Khatum Bi. (Vide legal opinion in paras 19 and 20)

28) The only question now is whether the share of the deceased Rs. 0-3-6 may be separately registered for life in the name of Khatum Bi, the last pensioner's daughter who is reported to be in a helpless condition;

29) Or, if it is considered that the pension of Rs 1-11-11 is already small and should not be further split up, the whole pension may be registered in the name of Khatum Bi, of which Khatum Bi's share alone should be for life and it should lapse to Govt after her demise; As the remaining 7/8ths of the pension belongs to the sons and daughters on a hereditary basis, it is fair that neither they nor their heirs should be deprived of the family pension except when there are no heirs.
